hereinafter set forth, subject to the terms and conditions of this final judgment. Any dispute between the special counsel and the boards of trustees shall be submitted to this Court for determination.

The boards of trustees shall review the substance and recommendations of the first and second interim reports submitted by the receiver and its accountants to the Court and shall report to the Court in connection therewith. They shall continue with the work heretofor performed by the receiver and shall formulate and recommend to this Court such plans for liquidation, reorganization, consolidation or merger or continuation in business as may be consistent with the best interests of the public depositors and the rights of the creditors and claimants. Such recommendations shall upon proper notice and hearing be presented to this Court for approval thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that upon the first meeting of the independent boards of trustees for Lincoln Thrift Association and U.S. Thrift Association, as set forth herein, on Monday, May 10, 1976, at 8:45 A.M., at the United States Court House, Room 5000, Phoenix, Arizona, the receiver shall cease to act in the premises and shall turn over to the special counsel all books, records and worksheets received by or prepared by or for the receiver in the course of its administration, and it shall reasonably cooperate with and assist said boards of trustees and special counsel to carry out their respective duties and obligations and it shall turn over to the independent boards of trustees all property and assets of the companies heretofore marshalled and conserved by the receiver and not turned over to special counsel and it shall account to the Court, the independent boards of trustees and special counsel and the Commission for all acts taken during the course of the receivership.
